

ACTIVE ASSAILANT

Acts of violence are a sobering reality in today's world. If the unthinkable happens, it is important to have a plan in place to mitigate risk and help those affected. McKee Risk Management is able to provide Active Assailant coverage for our agents across a wide range of businesses. This coverage includes immediate crisis response capabilities, post-event assistance and pre-event training. Our proposals provide nine different proposal levels so that insureds new to this coverage can select as much or as little coverage as they desire. No one ever expects the unexpected, but you can prepare for it.
